IV. Open Items

Concerning the survey of the town property, there is no update. Clerk has not been able To contact Mr. Webb.

Mayer noted that we are getting a couple more estimates on the bathroom remodel.

V. New Business

Jefferson County bill for EMA pro rata share for 2013-16 is based on population of residents in County Line within Jefferson County. Mayor to look into this matter.

Mayor Self to check with Blount Co Health Dept and DHR concerning unhealthy environment in trailer parks.

A nuisance and public health ordinance to be looked into by the Town. The Mayor has a proposed ordinance for the next meeting. Our attorney to look it over first he has to determine who has the authority to regulate health concerns in the town.

Mayor Self gave out the Municipal Election Calendar for information of what is to be done and when over the next several months. July 5th thru the 19th is qualifying period.

The mayor asked the council members to start thinking of persons we can ask to work the polls they must be from County Line. Our attorney stated how the elections should be run. We also need to budget for the cost of our election the estimated costs somewhere between $4500.00 and $5000.00.

Steve Brewer asked if some of the streets light could be turned back on. He is to check pole numbers on the ones he thinks we need to turned on.

Adjournment: A motion was made by Myrtle Van Kleeck and seconded by Floyd Philpot to adjourn this meeting at 8:00pm. Motion Carried

Respectfully submitted by Lucy Kiley for Brenda Philpot, Town Clerk
